16 WOODEN LIFEBOATS

A large wooden lifeboat is being lowered from the side of a ship at night. The lifeboat is suspended by ropes and is being lowered into the water. The ship's hull is visible, with many windows illuminated from within. The scene is dark, with the primary light source being the ship's interior lights.

Each designed to hold up to 65 people

Cf. Food Preparations:

*The End
Of Their Earthly Sojourn!*

A large cruise ship is shown at night, illuminated from within, with its deck and upper levels visible. The ship is tilted slightly. Below the ship, several small, crowded rowing boats are on the water. The sky is dark with stars, and the water reflects the lights from the ship and the stars. The overall scene suggests a dramatic or urgent situation.
